TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1 – Arrival in Kasane (Botswana)

Upon arrival at Kasane Airport, guests are warmly welcomed and transferred to your elegant lodge, perfectly set on the banks of the Chobe River. The next three nights are enjoyed on a dinner, bed, and breakfast basis, with all park fees included. Take some time to settle in and refresh before embarking on your first activity, a cruise on the Chobe River. This first taste of the region's incredible wildlife offers sightings of elephants, buffalo, hippo, and abundant birdlife. Dinner is served at the lodge, overlooking the river as the sun sets.

Day 2 & 3 – Exploring Chobe National Park

The following two days are dedicated to immersing in the beauty and wildlife of Chobe. Each day includes two of the lodge's signature activities — either a game drive into Chobe National Park or a cruise along the river. Guests may choose their preferred activity, allowing them to balance land-based safaris with the serenity of water-based exploration. With the park fees already included, each experience provides ample opportunity to witness the park's renowned elephant herds, predators, and the varied ecosystems that make Chobe so unique. You can also choose to spend your time at leisure, whether relaxing at the lodge, enjoying the pool, or simply soaking up the views from the deck before another delicious dinner.
