Day 2 – Nairobi – Samburu National Reserve

After breakfast, you will be met at your hotel for a short safari briefing before beginning your journey northwards into Kenya's rugged frontier. The drive of approximately five and a half hours takes you through ever-changing landscapes, from the fertile highlands to the drier, dramatic terrain that heralds your arrival in Samburu. This semi-arid reserve is famed for its striking scenery and unique wildlife. Here, you may encounter the "Samburu Special Five", the elegant, reticulated giraffe, Grevy's zebra, Somali ostrich, beisa oryx, and the curious long-necked gerenuk. The reserve is also home to vast elephant herds, powerful buffalo, and with a little luck, predators such as lions, leopards, or even the elusive African wild dog. You will arrive at your lodge in time for lunch, followed by an afternoon game drive through this untamed wilderness. As the sun begins to dip, return to your lodge for dinner and an overnight stay, surrounded by the sounds of the African bush.

Day 4 – Samburu – Ol Pejeta Conservancy

After a final early morning game drive in Samburu and a hearty breakfast, you will bid farewell to this rugged landscape and set off on a scenic three-hour journey to Ol Pejeta Conservancy. Nestled on the Laikipia Plateau, with the snow-capped peaks of Mount Kenya rising majestically in the distance, Ol Pejeta is one of Kenya's most celebrated wildlife sanctuaries. On arrival, you will check in to your tented camp and enjoy lunch before heading out for your first game drive in the conservancy. Ol Pejeta is renowned for its pioneering conservation work and is home to an impressive variety of wildlife, including elephants, lions, buffalo, oryx, and silver-backed jackals. For a truly memorable experience, a range of optional activities (available at an additional cost) are on offer. These include lion tracking excursions, guided bush and bird walks. As evening falls, return to camp for dinner and an overnight stay, surrounded by the magic of Ol Pejeta.

Day 5 – Ol Pejeta – Lake Naivasha

Begin the day with an early morning game drive through the conservancy, as the rising sun casts golden light across the savannah and wildlife stirs to life. After breakfast at camp, depart for Lake Naivasha, following a scenic route that passes the cascading Thompson Falls, framed by lush vegetation and dramatic cliffs. The drive of approximately four hours offers plenty of opportunity to admire Kenya's changing landscapes as you descend into the heart of the Great Rift Valley. We arrive at the tranquil shores of Lake Naivasha in time for a late lunch. The lake is renowned for its abundance of wildlife. In the evening, settle in at Lake Naivasha Sopa Resort for dinner and an overnight stay, surrounded by the serene beauty of this iconic Rift Valley lake.

Day 7 & 8 – Maasai Mara National Reserve

We will spend two unforgettable days exploring the Maasai Mara, the northern extension of the Serengeti ecosystem, where the plains virtually pulse with life. The Mara is famed for its extraordinary concentration of grazing and browsing animals, as well as its apex predators—lions, leopards, cheetahs, and spotted hyenas.

Validity: 2026

Morning and afternoon game drives take you across different areas of the reserve, guided by expert trackers who know where the best wildlife encounters await. Depending on the day, you may rise early to catch the dramatic sunrise over the savannah and return for a leisurely late breakfast, or venture out with a picnic lunch to spend the day fully immersed in the wilderness. For a truly extraordinary experience, consider a hot air balloon safari (optional activity, approx. USD 510 per person), an unforgettable way to experience the majesty of the Mara from above. You will return to your camp each evening for dinner.
