TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1 – Arrival Kilimanjaro Airport (JRO) to Arusha

Upon arrival at Kilimanjaro International Airport, you will be picked up and transferred to your hotel in Arusha. Depending on your energy, you can either relax at the lodge or explore the beautiful surroundings. Located just outside Arusha, the hotel offers spectacular views of Mount Meru thanks to its serene rural setting. The on-site restaurant specializes in Mediterranean à la carte cuisine and features an open kitchen, an indoor dining area, and a terrace with umbrellas.

Day 2 – Arusha – Tarangire National Park

After being picked up from your hotel, your driver will take you to Tarangire National Park, a sanctuary famous for its large elephant herds. The park is named after the Tarangire River, which serves as the only source of water for wildlife during the dry season. Towering baobab trees rise majestically across the rolling savannah, creating an iconic landscape that is truly unforgettable. In the rainy season, the southern part of the park functions as a natural water reservoir, while during the dry season, the animals gather in the green, nutrient-rich swamp areas, providing excellent opportunities for wildlife viewing and photography.

Day 5 – Serengeti National Park

There is something truly magical about waking up in the Serengeti. From the lodge, you may spot zebras, buffaloes, or warthogs grazing peacefully nearby, while the calls of guinea fowl fill the air. The African bush surrounds you as you enjoy breakfast against the backdrop of this breathtaking landscape. Today's game drive can be organized either as a full-day adventure or split into a morning and an evening drive, depending on your preference. You will cover a distance of approximately 80 to 100 kilometres, spending six to seven hours exploring the vast plains and witnessing the incredible diversity of wildlife, or two shorter drives of about three and a half hours each for a more relaxed pace.

Day 6 – Serengeti National Park – Arusha Airport Departure

The chirping of birds will gently wake you in the morning, and the stunning Serengeti landscape can be seen directly from the bed of your lodge tent. As the sun rises, the golden light illuminates the plains, creating the perfect backdrop for one last souvenir photograph. Filled with memories from the past few days, you will pack your bags and bid farewell to the lodge staff. You will then drive to Seronera Airstrip, covering 60 to 100 kilometres in about two hours, where you will board your flight for Arusha Airport, where your tour comes to an end upon arrival. You are flying with Auric Airline, the total baggage allowance is 20kg (15 kg luggage and 5 kg hand luggage). Upon your arrival in Arusha, you will be transferred to your accommodation for the night.

Day 8 – Nairobi – Samburu National Reserve

After breakfast, you will be met at your hotel for a short safari briefing before beginning your journey northwards into Kenya's rugged frontier. The drive of approximately five and a half hours takes you through ever-changing landscapes, from the fertile highlands to the drier, dramatic terrain that heralds your arrival in Samburu. This semi-arid reserve is famed for its striking scenery and unique wildlife. Here, you may encounter the "Samburu Special Five", the elegant, reticulated giraffe, Grevy's zebra, Somali ostrich, beisa oryx, and the curious long-necked gerenuk. The reserve is also home to vast elephant herds, powerful buffalo, and with a little luck, predators such as lions, leopards, or even the elusive African wild dog. You will arrive at your lodge in time for lunch, followed by an afternoon game drive through this untamed wilderness. As the sun begins to dip, return to your lodge for dinner and an overnight stay, surrounded by the sounds of the African bush.
